Re: Vidal v. Venettozzi et al., 18-cv-06184 (NSR)

Dear Hon. J. Roman:

SO ORDERED:

NELSON S. ROMÁN
United States District Judge

This Office represents the defendants Don E. Venettozzi, Eric Gutwein, Wayne Carrol, and Bryan P. Anspach in this is a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action brought by pro se state inmate Joseph Vidal alleging due process violations related to a prison disciplinary hearing at Green Haven Correctional Facility. This is a letter motion for additional time to complete discovery. The current discovery completion date is November 30th. Defendants have provided documentary discovery to Plaintiff at the time of this letter and have noticed the deposition of Plaintiff for December 7, 2021, past the current deadline due to a heavy calendar and a few personal matters including the flooding of the undersigned's home during Ida and a Delta outbreaks at child's school. Defendants need additional time to speak to Defendants to finish responses to Plaintiff's interrogatories for defendants and request additional time to complete discovery to January 7, 2022.

Respectfully submitted

Janice Powers, Esq.
Asst. Attorney General
